CONNECTING THE STARS

Book Project - Author Deborah Stevenson

“Connecting the stars” showcases the wonder, magic and vastness of the universe, while teaching children the names, appearance, facts and myths about the constellations. It explores the parallels we can draw from the constellations: like stars, we human beings are small in a big world, diverse and each separate and alone, yet through our hearts, imaginations, stories and shared experiences, we are all connected to one another.

THE VIOLIN LESSON

A PLACE FOR ME TOO

Book project

“Be a good opossum”, says Mum to Hop-là one day. But what does a good opossum do? What if we discover we don't fit in?

A tale about finding our own place in the world without compromising on who we are.

Published book - Terra Nuova edizioni 2019 - Author Sara Marconi

A LEZIONE DI QUI E ORA

Filippo is ill and his mum has a very important meeting to attend.

Their bizarre neighbor Mrs. Clotilde then offers to spend the morning with the kid to study with a very special teacher and learn together how we can forget our worries and fully live in the here and now. A funny book about mindfulness.

WATERMELON PIP

To be published December 2020 - Ethicool Books - Author Sharna Carther

Pip's love for watermelon has made her a bit selfish: she doesn't want to share it with anyone and she doesn't mind wasting it. Until...one sad morning she discovers that all the watermelon in town has gone. What to do then? A tale about sharing and caring for the environment.

THE GREEN WOOLEN FEDORA

Book project - Author Deborah Stevenson

Nora's green woolen Fedora is not just a hat: it's her connection to her grandpa. When a whipping wind carries it off, Nora is devastated. Her BFF Lenny didn't mean to let the hat go, and she'll forgive him of course. But first, it seems they're going on
